New County Officers.

The old officers of the county were retired Monday and the new officers took their oath of office. In only three cases, however, was there a change of faces. R. C. Russel, is the new county attorney in place of Jas. W. Clarke, the retiring officer, Matt Dick is the new commissioner from the First district in place of Nic. Klepper and A. Schwager of Hoisington is the new county assessor taking the place of Harry Diefenbacher.

The old officers holding over are Mike Daily, sheriff, Charles Younk county clerk, Will Soderstrom, county treasurer, Harry Hall, probate judge, Elmer Epperson, register of deeds, Sam Kellam, clerk of the district court, S. A. Newcombe, surveyor, Roy Cornelius, county printer, Dr. McCauley, county coroner, W. P. Feder, representative. Next May there will be still another change, Miss Momyer, the new superintendent taking the oath of office.

Thanks.

Nick. Klepper, retiring county commissioner, wishes to use this method of expressing his heartfelt thanks to the citizens of Great Bend and the Business Men's organization and the Commercial Club for the handsome gold cane with which he was presented upon his retirement from office. He has attempted to make a good official, to perform his duty in office, as he saw it, without fear or favor and to be thus honored at the end of his term of office is indeed an appreciation. He only hopes he has deserved such good treatment at the hands of his fellow citizens.

Liquor Cases.

John Root of the north side was brought before Judge James Clayton today charged with selling one pint of intoxicating liquor. A plea of guilty was entered and a fine of $100 assessed together with the costs and sentenced to 30 days in all. Deputy Sheriff E. E. Gray brought the defendant over here from the north side.

Ford—Keltner.

At the home of the bride's parents Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Keltner, Wednesday, December 23, at 12 o'clock m., Mr. Harry H. Ford and Miss Pearl Keltner were united in marriage, Rev. Baker of Meade, officiating. The bride and groom had but recently made their home among us, coming from near Hoisington, where they had known each other from early childhood. Miss Pearl is a young lady of fascinating ways and to know her is to love her; she is an earnest, attractive girl, endowed with many graces of mind and heart and is well fitted to grace the home of the young man she has chosen.

Mr. Ford is a young man of noble and sterling worth.

The wedding was witnessed by 40 of their friends and was an attractive affair. The house was beautifully decorated.

The bride and groom were at-

PAWNEE ROCK.

From The Herald.

tended by Miss Sylvia Keltner, sister of the bride, and Mr. Fred Ford, brother of the groom. The bride was more than beautiful in her wedding gown of pure white and lace. After the ceremony a bountiful array of wedding gifts attested the high esteem of the young people, while the friends extend their heartiest congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Ford and trust that the days and years to come will bring added happiness and blessings. Yet we feel that Meade county is to be congratulated, for Mr. and Mrs. Ford will live among us and be a part of us, on his farm near Meade, where he is building a residence to occupy about March 1st.—Hoisington Dispatch.

Fred Nuttleman left Thursday for a business trip to Kansas City, St. Louis and Des Moines, Ia.

Miss Edna Twichell and Romie Spain, both of our city, were united in marriage at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. M. E. Wiggins of Larded Wednesday evening, January 4th at 8 o'clock and arrived in our city yesterday morning. They are house-keeping in Earl Smith's house in the west part of town. This young couple is well and favorably known to our citizens as they have resided here for some time. The bride has been in the employ of D. R. Logan for the past year, while the groom is at present in the employ of T. P. Nichols.

Miss Grace Unruh returned to Lindsborg the fore part of the week after spending the holidays with her parents and other relatives. She is attending college there.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Henderson have moved into Mrs. Wycoff's house recently vacated by Henry Dirks.

Miss Gertrude Arnold of Kahoka, Mo., is here visiting her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Pasner also her sister, Miss Vida Arnold.

Thornburg.

Nina, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Thornburg, died Thursday morning after several months' illness, at the age of 3 years, 4 months and 18 days. The little one had been a sufferer from stomach trouble for some months and everything that hands could do was done to save her life; but the disease could not be conquered.

This is the fourth child the Thornburgs have lost in the last five years, and the bereavement is a sad one.

The funeral services were held at the home Friday at 2 o'clock. We extend our sympathy to them in the hour of sadness.
